

MORGAN'S OFFER IS REJECTED BY THORNE'S TRUST CO.

"Will Either Pay Off Every Depositor or Close for Liquidation in Open Market," Says
a Director.

The directors of the Trust Company of America late this afternoon rejected J. Pierpont Morgan's plan to render their company financial aid.

"We will either be in a position to pay off every depositor, or the Trust Company of America will close down for liquidation in the open market," declared a member of Oakleigh Thorne's Board of Directors.

Events of the day, from the standpoint of the Trust Company of America, do not put Mr. Morgan in the role of a philanthropist. Mr. Morgan demanded that before any assistance be given the trust company, its directors shall put up $30,000,000 of its securities, for which aid to the extent of $15,000,000 would be extended.

To consider this plan, early this morning the trust company directors met at an uptown club. A committee of five was appointed to confer with Mr. Morgan and the committee of the trust company presidents, which was organized on Sunday.

Refused Morgan's Terms.
Mr. Thorne and his directors, through this committee, declined aid in the form it was tendered. Their contention was that to accept aid by hypothecating $30,000,000 of securities for half its value was a betrayal of their own trust to the many depositors.

One director said that it was illegal, and that the counsel of the trust company, William F. Sheehan, had advised the board that the proposed Morgan plan was illegal.

The Trust Company of America's Committee of Five went to Mr. Morgan's house and gave him their answer. It is said that a new plan was then proposed, and the sub-committee reported back the terms of the second plan to the full Board of Directors late this afternoon.

There is small chance of the Trust Company of America receding from its present position," said one of its directors. "We are solvent, according to the expert accountants of the Clearing-House Committee, and if we are entitled to aid, it should be in an agreement honorable to our board."

Other conferences will be held later in the night, but Mr. Thorne's directors declare that they will not surrender their autonomy.

It was learned that the committee

Thorne prior to the meeting. "No member of our Board of Directors has resigned, and none is going to. There is no reason why we should accept aid on the day for the securities we have in hand. The directors are not going to surrender their autonomy, and the results of our conference will be made known either from our own mouths or from the offices of the Trust Company of America."

Mr. Thorne admitted that the control of the Trust Company of America had passed to the United States Steel Corporation. Mr. Thorne was one of the directors of the company formerly re-elected, and a large stockholder in the company. He is now a director of the Trust Company of America as collateral for loans.

Lincoln Trust Accepts.

There is no sign of hesitation on the part of the officers and directors of the Lincoln Trust Company. They have agreed to accept aid on the day for the securities they have in hand. They have signed their names to a resolution to accept aid on the day for the securities they have in hand.

"There has not even been a suggestion as to the resignation of either the directors or the officers of the Lincoln Trust Company. The officers on the board continue to enjoy the confidence of not only the depositors and stockholders of the company, but of the other financial interests of the city. The larger and more influential depositors continue to have confidence in the Trust Company, not only show no lack of confidence, but have pledged their hearty cooperation and support to the management."

Judge Gary Returns.
Judge E. H. Gary, chairman of the Board of Directors of the United States Steel Corporation, who, with Henry C. Frick, went to Washington yesterday and conferred with President Roosevelt, returned to his apartments in the Waldorf-Astoria to-day. Before going to join Mr. Frick at J. P. Morgan's residence he was seen by an Evening World reporter and asked about his visit to the capital.

"In due time," said Mr. Gary, "I must speak frankly of the facts of my trip with Mr. Frick to Washington and our conference with the President. But it is not for me to say whether it was a success or a failure. I am sure that the President has given us the best advice he could give, and that we have given him the best advice we could give."

He said that he was sure that the President had given them the best advice he could give, and that they had given him the best advice they could give.

IT DON'T COST MUCH TO MAKE

Says Anyone Can Easily Prepare It, and Knows Nothing Better to Take.

Rheumatism is easier to avoid than to cure, states a well-known authority. Every man, woman and child here should dress as warmly as possible, and, above all else, keep the feet dry. Avoid colds and exposure, and don't become constipated.

Rheumatism is strictly a blood disease, caused by inactive kidneys, which, through cold or exposure or improper diet, fail in their duty of filtering the rheumatic poisons from the blood. This poisonous waste matter, uric acid, oxalate of lime, urea, etc., if not strained from the blood promptly, decomposes and settles about the joints and muscles, causing rheumatic disease.

In damp or chilly cold weather the kidneys are made to do double
